IKE HURLS CHALLENGE AT KHRUSHCHEV

Ike Parleys With Visiting National Chiefs

Castro, Khrushchev Not on Caller List Of U.S. President

NEW YORK (AP)—President Eisenhower turned to personal diplomacy immediately after giving his address before the U.N. General Assembly here today. But Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev wasn't on the American chief's list of conferees.

He invited 18 representatives of Latin American nations to a luncheon after the speech.

Then he arranged to confer with the president of Ghana, Kwame Nkrumah. Ghana is one of the most important new African states.

Nkrumah, arriving Wednesday night with 33 Ghana representatives, told reporters he would "possibly endeavor to see President Eisenhower and Mr. Khrushchev." He added that he definitely would confer "with all the African independent states."

Eisenhower's next appointment was with Prime Minister B. P. Koirala of Nepal. Nepal has been under heavy pressure from the Chinese Communists.

Prime Minister Saeb Salam of Lebanon came next on the list. Eisenhower dispatched U.S. Marines to Lebanon two years ago when the government was threatened by guerrillas.

Salam arrived in New York Wednesday night, declaring he hoped the United Nations would see to it that Algerians get to express their "own wishes" on the Algerian question. He said he had no plans to see Khrushchev as yet. After Salam, Eisenhower met President Tito of Yugoslavia. Years ago, the Soviets branded Tito a Communist heretic. He is now reported to be endeavoring to become the leader of the neutralist nations of the world.

But this was not all.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower cancelled a cabinet meeting Friday in order to stay overnight in New York. He may see still more heads of government Friday.

Khrushchev addresses the Assembly Friday. Communist diplomats said he will present "dramatic proposals."

FBI Reports Beer Baron Kidnaped, Slain

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Millionaire Adolph Coors III was kidnaped, shot twice in the back and his body thrown on a mountain trash dump by an abductor who demanded a half million dollars in ransom.

A report released by the FBI late Wednesday hinted that Coors, 44, was dead by the time a typewritten note demanding the $500,000 or his return was delivered to his family. No final contact was made with the kidnaper, however. The FBI is continuing its search for Joseph Corbett Jr., 31, as a fugitive from justice.

Corbett lived here for 3½ years after escaping from a California prison where he was serving a sentence for murder. The FBI never has linked him officially with the Coors case.

But Wednesday it disclosed Corbett: Boasted to associates before Coors' disappearance that "I'm carrying out one big job which will get me between a half and one million dollars. I've been planning it for more than two years now, and when I pull it off I'm going to take off for some other country."

Man Chains Self To Laboring Wife

ARCATA, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. John Quinn gave birth to a boy Wednesday night while chained to her husband.

Quinn, 23, a student at Humboldt State College, had insisted on being with his 19-year-old wife in the delivery room.

When doctors said no, Quinn shackled himself to his brunette wife by their wrists and secured the chain with two padlocks.

Trinity Hospital officials called police, but the boy—the Quinn's first child—was born with Quinn observing.

Mother and son were reported doing fine.

Quinn unlocked the chain and walked out of the hospital past policeman Don Mann who was scratching his head.

No charges were filed against Quinn, an English literature major.

Girl Bystander Fatally Shot in Castro Hassle

NEW YORK (AP)—A 9-year-old Venezuelan girl, stuck in the back by a stray bullet in a fight between supporters and opponents of Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro, died today in St. Clare's Hospital.

The girl, Magdalena Urdaneto of Caracas, was dining with her tourist parents in a restaurant Wednesday when a gang of Castro sympathizers burst in. An anti-Castroite, Louis Rodriguez, 25, was wounded in the shoulder.

Beer bottles flew, fists swung, and tables and chairs were overturned during the melee. It was touched off after a pro-Castro man sighted five anti-Castro men who came in to order sandwiches at the El Prado Restaurant on 8th avenue near 51st street.

A man was arrested today in connection with the free-for-all, and another man was being hunted as the actual gun-wielder.

The pro-Castro man used a telephone in the restaurant, and minutes later about a dozen adherents of Castro appeared—and the battle began.

Rodriguez, whose wound was not serious, listed his home as Brooklyn. Two other anti-Castro victims who required hospital treatment were Francisco Pereira who said they are Cuban exiles here from Miami. They were beaten over the head.

Three anti-Tito demonstrators were arrested Wednesday night after shouting insults through bull horns from a Fifth Avenue bus as it passed the Yugoslav U.N. headquarters.

Later, six other anti-Tito demonstrators were seized near the Yugoslav residence. Police said they were throwing firecrackers.

In Harlem Wednesday night two men, one a Castro supporter and the other anti-Castro, were arrested and accused of using loud and boisterous language, and of being part of a milling crowd which blocked traffic near the hotel Theresa, where Castro and his party are staying.

As many as 10,000 persons milled about the hotel during the night, but only one destructive incident was reported—a broken store window. No arrests were made.

9,000 Guards on Job

NEW YORK (AP)—An estimated 9,000 security men are on the job here guarding visiting United Nations dignitaries and keeping any demonstrations from getting out of hand.

U.S. Offers To Scrap All Nuclear Arms

True World Community Is America's Goal, President Tells U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—President Eisenhower today flung a formidable challenge at Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev: work primarily through the United Nations in attacking the world's most dangerous problems and thus "build a structure of a true world community."

The President dared the U.S.S.R. to join in an immediate resumption of disarmament talks, with the aim of scrapping all nuclear weapons while U.N. inspection makes sure that outer space will not be used for war.

Representatives of 96 member nations of the U.N., in a historic General Assembly session listened soberly as the President, in a firm and confident voice, pronounced U.S. intentions. He challenged Khrushchev, who listened intently with earphones.

To work for peaceful change in a swiftly changing world, with the U.N. in the guiding role;

To guarantee that outer space will not be used for mass destruction;

To avoid claiming sovereignty over celestial bodies. The U.S.S.R. has already planted a Soviet flag by rocket on the moon.

To resume immediately the efforts to reach agreements on arms control;

To launch a food-for-peace program throughout the world, to give substantial help to the emerging new nations of Africa, under the U.N. and to other developing nations.

Indirectly assailing the Soviet Union for actions in the Congo, the President proposed that all 55 member nations in the U.N. agree to respect the freedom of new African countries and refrain from sending arms or forces there.

He upheld Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld against Soviet criticism and called for expanded help to Africa under U.N. auspices. He pledged U.S. aid toward that end.

But his words on disarmament and the policing of outer space attracted most attention because Khrushchev has come to his U.N. assembly with the avowed aim of discussing disarmament with other heads of state.

The United States, Eisenhower said, is ready to submit to any effective and truly reciprocal inspection system.

He criticized the Russians' walkout from Geneva disarmament negotiations June 27, just as the United States was submitting new proposals, and said:

"Time and time again, the American people have voiced this yearning—to join with men of good will everywhere in building a better world. We always stand ready to consider any feasible proposal to his end. We ask only this—that such a program not give a military advantage to any nation and that it permit men to inspect the disarmament of other nations."

Jap Prince, Princess Head for Visit to U.S.

TOKYO (AP)—Crown Prince Akihito and Princess Michiko, whose tennis-court romance thrilled the world in 1959, left today for a tour of the United States.

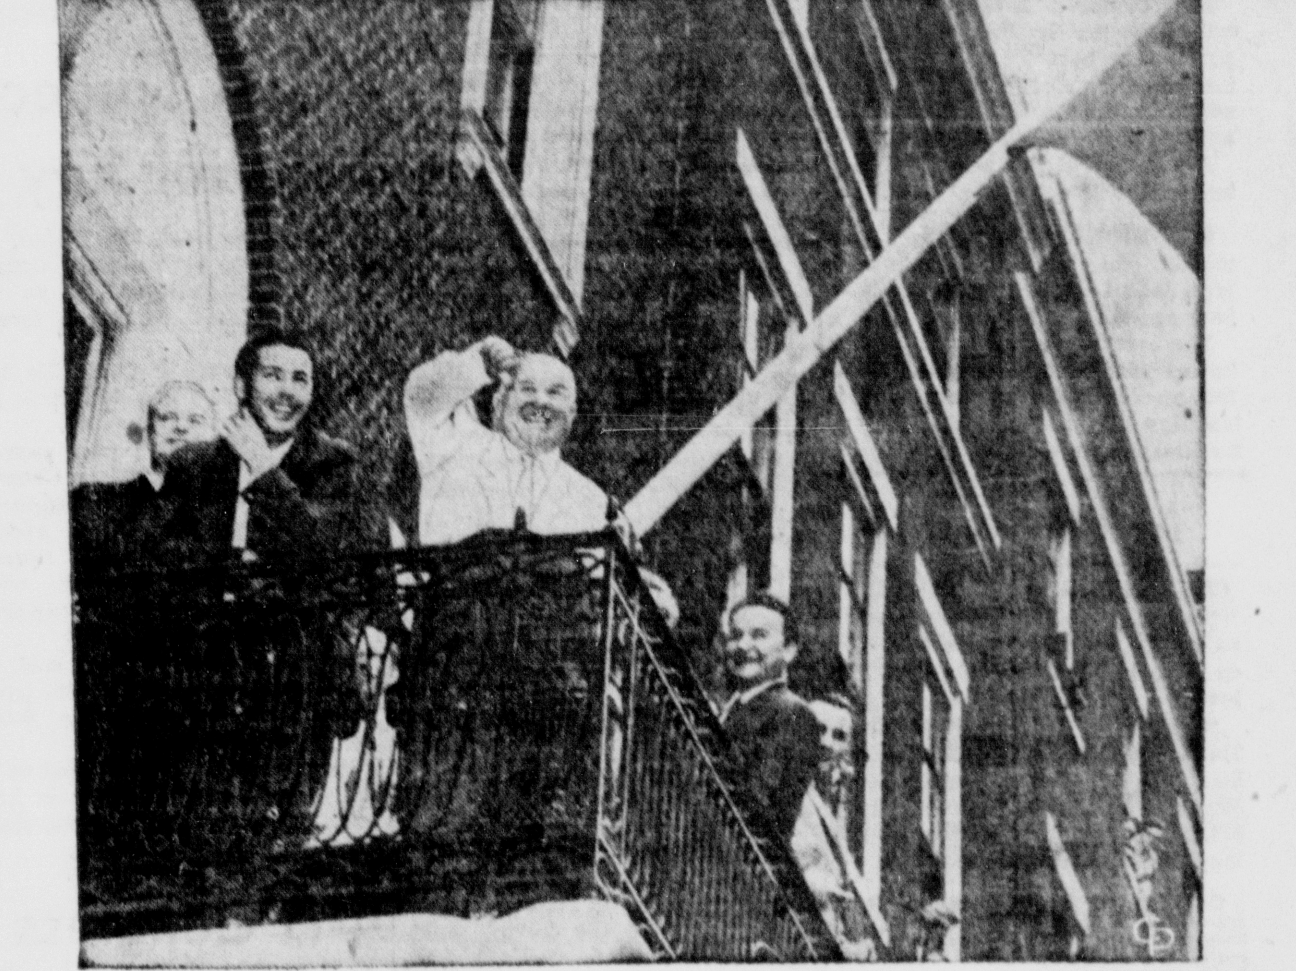

The popular young couple carried the hopes of the government and many ordinary Japanese of smoothing over the bad impression created by leftist anti-American demonstrations that forced cancellation of President Eisenhower's visit to Tokyo last June.

Detectors traced Lopez and arrested him. In the meantime, services had been arranged. A couple Mrs. Lopez met in the hospital while Joseph lay dying raised $50 and called a mortuary to see if that would buy a funeral.

The mortician heard the story and agreed to provide the funeral arrangements free.

Pomona police heard Lopez' story and agreed to let him attend.

"I spent five days and nights outside the coroner's office," he said, "as near as I could get to Joseph."

KHRUSHCHEV IN BALCONY SCENE — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev (in white shirt) holds his thumb down in a "no" gesture as he answers reporters' questions from a balcony overlooking Park avenue. In a jovial mood, he and reporters shouted back questions and answers that were translated by interpreters.

Mr. K. Beginning To Look Like His Own Worst Enemy

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev, campaigning for the Soviet version of world peace, is beginning to look like his own worst enemy.

The Soviet premier strides upon the world stage at the U.N. General Assembly Friday to present his formula for ending the cold war. But his performance so far on his second visit to the United States and the U.N. reinforces the impression that there will be no end to the cold war unless Communists have their way.

Whatever Khrushchev has up his sleeve for his big speech—and it is a good guess that he will be characteristically Khrushchevian—the boss of world communism has left little doubt of Communist intentions to dominate the world.

Standing on a balcony in his shirt sleeves and pawing at the air, Khrushchev blurted out the doctrines which seem to govern his every move: "Communism is the next stage in the development of man. Anyone who knows history knows this to be true."

The goings-on in connection with this 15th U.N. Assembly session are giving perplexed Americans and the world important clues to the future and to what makes dictators tick.

Khrushchev and his companion in undiplomatic shenanigans, Cuba's Fidel Castro, emerge as men of the same stamp, however different their appearance and background. The picture they present is that of men wholly convinced they speak for "the people," and any who oppose them are "enemies of the people."

Group Eyes Sesqui Plans

A meeting to make plans for Sesquicentennial activity is scheduled for 8 p. m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ray Davis, 120 Montclair Ave.

The Sesqui Program committee will meet to discuss ideas for Pumpkin Show programs, a pageant and a final county-wide get-together.

The Circleville Pumpkin Show Committee program chairman James Shea has OK'd two spots on the PS program from Sesquicentennial activities. An old-fashioned costume contest probably will fill one of the spots.

The Logan Pageant, written by Tom and Grace Stevenson Haber, probably will be staged, under the guidance of William Pangburn, Ashville band director. Final date has not been set.

York next Monday to address a Catholic charities group. He could appoint himself head of the U.S. delegation, address the assembly, and answer Khrushchev.

The wheels of diplomacy are racing in New York.

There were indications that Khrushchev would meet privately with Tito. The Soviet leader paid no attention whatever to Tito in the General Assembly hall on the opening day.

But sources close to Tito said he wants to see Khrushchev in private after the conference with Eisenhower "so as to keep a balance between both sides."

A representative of Cuba's Fidel Castro visited the Yugoslav headquarters, reportedly to set up the arrangements for a meeting between Tito and Castro.

And in London Prime Minister Macmillan called a cabinet meeting to decide whether he should fly to New York to address the assembly.

Eisenhower was the second of four speakers on today's schedule. He was preceded by Horacio Lafer, foreign minister of Brazil, and followed by Zentaro Kozaka, foreign minister of Japan, and then by Tito.

Yugoslav diplomats said Tito wanted to set forth his ideas on a wide range of cold war issues - peaceful cooperation, disarmament, the Congo and colonial issues, undeveloped countries, and the role of the United Nations in the swift-changing picture.

Khrushchev kept busy Wednesday - talking with reporters from the balcony of the Soviet diplomatic headquarters on Park Avenue. He appeared twice, once in his shirt-sleeves.

He talked about "American culture," disarmament and the major league baseball races, pooh-poohed reports of a dispute between himself and the Communist Chinese leader, Mao Tse-tung, complained that he is "under house arrest," and kidded his foreign minister Andrei Gromyko.

When demonstrators booed him he said through an interpreter: "That is America - the supreme culture. Have you ever seen anything like this in our country?"

He said he intends to go to Cuba "as soon as we come to terms with Fidel Castro about the travel time."

Check Suspect Held for Jury

William S. Hart, The Plains, O., was bound to the Pickaway County Grand Jury yesterday on an accusation of uttering a forged check.

Hart appeared in Circleville Municipal Court where bond was set at $3,000. He pleaded guilty.

Hart is the third man apprehended by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department in connection with the check case. About four weeks ago brothers James R. Haas and 22, Athens, and Richard H. Haas, 27, Stewart, O., were picked up.

Deputy Dwight Radcliff said all three men are charged with passing a forged check at a South Bloomfield tavern.

James Haas was picked up in Cleveland and his brother in Athens. Hart surrendered to the sheriff's department this week.

4-H Congress Held at OSU

Many local 4-H members attended the 43rd Annual 4-H Congress which was held Saturday through Wednesday at the Ohio State University. The theme of the congress was "Learn, Grow, Serve, and Live Through 4-H."

An assembly was held each day for speeches, group singing, and contests. Following each assembly those attending were divided into discussion groups. During the evening the time was spent in recreation of various types. One of the highlights was the water show at the Natatorium with the Ohio Water Champions displaying their talents.

Monday was "Government Day" at the congress and the afternoon was spent at the Capital in a mock legislature session. Tuesday was dedicated as "Live Day," the day was set aside purposely for tours over the campus of the university.

Wednesday evening local 4-H members attended a banquet sponsored by the Ford Tractor and Implement Dealers. Following the program of the banquet members attended a dance at the Ohio Union.

Easy To Quit Smoking

It's easy to give up smoking. All you do is start out alone on a 69-day voyage across the Atlantic in a small sailboat and forget to take extra cartons of cigarettes.

Jean Lacombe of New York, once a two-pack-a-day man, did it that way. Few could duplicate the precise conditions under which he swore off, but his experience proves what the experts say—that there is no way to lick cigarettes except to quit cold.

Any number of books have been written suggesting daily quotas, no smoking before dinner, gradual withdrawal and other psychological dodges. They fail for most addicts.

Remark To Irk a Dieter

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks people on a diet get tired of hearing:

"Haven't you been putting on a little weight lately?"

"Hi, fatty."

"And then you pour in half a cup of sugar, add the whipped cream and—"

"Actually, in your case, it's probably not so much fat as it is a matter of posture. Why don't you just try pulling in your stomach? You say it already is pulled in?"

"On you it looks good."

"Goodness, how I envy you. No, I really mean it. I eat, and eat, and eat and never gain an ounce."

"My cousin goes to a Hindu who tells him that losing weight is simple—if you just tune your mind to the infinite. Then you forget all about hunger pangs."

"You mean that's all the calories you're allowed for a whole day? Why, in the old days you used to spill more than that on your necktie during lunch."

"Have you tried the lemon juice and aspirin diet? I hear it works wonders—and you can eat all the aspirin you want."

"Talk to him about baseball Khruischev, the atom bomb or anything else at all, but don't mention food."

"Have another carrot. Oh, go on, take two."

"My friend ate nothing but grapefruit juice and marmalade. And in less than two weeks he dropped two whole pounds."

"So what if you are a little overweight? I had an uncle who weighed 296 pounds and he lived to be 90. Of course, he was bed-fast the last 25 years, but on the other hand—"

"I know you must be sick and tired of cucumbers. Why don't you try for a little more variety? How about a nice radish, for example?"

"Yes, you still take a size 16 collar. But if I were you I'd try a size 17 this time—not that you need it, but it'll just give you a feeling of added comfort."

"Have you heard about the new all-protein diet?"

"Have you heard about the new all-carbohydrate diet?"

"Have you heard about the new all-vitamin diet?"

"Anybody can take it off. But keeping it off—that's the really important thing."

"Oh, don't tell me you're on a diet, too! Now I've heard everything."

"Psychologically, I understand that fat people generally are suffering either from guilt feelings or a frustrated Oedipus complex. What do you think your trouble is?"

"Get your glass, dear, and I'll pour you breakfast."

"Get your glass, dear, and I'll pour you lunch."

"Get your glass, dear, and I'll pour you dinner."

"And you can bet your last dollar not one of these anti-Americans will fail to vote."

"As America is a democracy every body is granted the same privilege if he or she is a nationalized citizen. Whether he or she is a pro-American or pro-Communist."

"Of course, we have no Communist Party, thank God, but these pros other than Americans will vote for the Party that they might think is the weakest."

"I don't think either one of our great political parties would actually stoop so low as to endanger democracy for the sake of traitors votes just to be elected President of these United States."

"I know both Mr. Nixon and Mr. Kennedy are dyed-in-the-wool true, red-blooded Americans. Either man would do nothing to endanger our free way of life. Nor would they accept the help of those that are trying to overthrow our government."

"I say to every man and woman who will vote in this coming election in November, let us forget party politics."

"Our country could very well cease to be a land of freedom and democracy."

"We have two men both in them-selves are true, red-blooded Americans."

"But all men are not leaders. Mr. Kennedy has but very little experience in handling a situation such as our country is faced with today and if elected who would he choose for his cabinet."

"Russia will do everything in their power to see that Kennedy is elected because they know that Nixon will never give in. Nixon has had the experience to cope with this situation."

"There really is only one issue for the American people today. It is Communism, the Red tide that is running rough shod over country after country and leaving death and destruction."

"These beasts hate Christianity and freedom. Let us all register and vote in November. We owe it to our country. And pray to God for guidance."

Dear Editor:

"A few days ago a letter appeared in The Herald. It was written by someone who referred to themselves merely as a citizen."

"This citizen asked the question 'What is happening to America?' This was referring to that awful mass of wrecked cars and trucks at the Apple House. This person said that such places were reminding people of horrible suffering and death."

"Well, friends, I'll tell you what is happening to America. Old America is becoming filled up with a bunch of weak kneed, jellyfish people that can't bear to face reality."

"In times of war we talk so much about how terrible it is that men have to fight and suffer and die on the battlefields of the world."

"This truly is a sad thing and a terrible tragedy. And we build great statues and beautiful monuments in memory of those that died for our country."

"This is perfectly alright and I have nothing to say against it. But, there have been more people killed and maimed for life in car wrecks on the highways of America than in all the wars in the history of our country."

"And yet there are people who don't want to be reminded of this. I say unto you it would be good to use wrecking yards for mile posts if it were possible."

"Maybe it would slow some of the people down a little. There should be a wrecking yard at every entrance to every town in America to remind people what could happen if they make that one fatal slip. And maybe it would help to keep some of the loose nuts away from the steering wheel."

It is generally agreed that the basic requirement is a desire to stop. Since Mr. Lacombe's reform was forced by circumstances, not inclination, judgement in his case must be suspended. It will take another month, or maybe five or 10, before he's really free.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The "great debates" on TV between the presidential candidates figure to be something less than full debates and probably something less than great.

In all four confrontations between Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy newsmen and television commentators will be on the nation's screens with them, asking questions.

This is a lot different from watching the two candidates standing face to face, by themselves, pegging arguments at each other. In at least one of the four encounters the candidates will be a continent apart, appearing on split screens.

These meetings will be historic to the degree it will be the first time presidential candidates meet on TV to discuss the issues—no matter how they do the discussing.

The first invitation to the two men to join in a "great debate" came from Robert W. Sarnoff, board chairman of the National Broadcasting Co., after the national political conventions in July.

The result is that all the national TV and radio networks will carry the debates, each lasting an hour.

This is the way they will go: First meeting—Monday, Sept. 26, from Chicago from 9:30 to 10:30 p.m. EDT. The discussion will be on domestic policy.

Each candidate will be given eight minutes as an opener. Then a panel of four TV people will ask one of them a question. He'll get three minutes to answer. Then his opponent gets 1½ minutes to reply.

The panel will then ask the second man a question. He'll get three minutes to answer. His opponent gets 1½ minutes to reply. This will go on until only six minutes are left.

Then each of the two candidates will get three minutes to sum up.

Second meeting—Friday Oct. 7, from New York from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. EDT. This probably will take the form of a news conference with a panel of newsmen asking questions of both candidates.

On this one Nixon and Kennedy will appear together if possible. If they both can't be in New York at the same time, they'll have to appear on a split screen to answer the questions.

Third meeting—Thursday, Oct. 13, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. EDT, with the program originating in New York. This also will take the form of a news conference but will be on a split screen with Nixon in Los Angeles and Kennedy in New York.

Fourth meeting—Friday, Oct. 21, from 10 to 11 p.m. EDT, from New York. This will follow the form of the first meeting with a panel of TV commentators asking questions. The subject will be foreign policy.

Firm To Sell Ohio Interests

Court Action Affects Company in Warren

WASHINGTON (AP) — American Radiator & Standard Sanitary Corp. has agreed to divest itself of its Youngstown Kitchens Division at Warren, Ohio.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers said the action came about as the result of court action. He said an antitrust consent judgment entered in U.S. District Court at Pittsburgh requires American-Standard to offer the Kitchens Division for prompt sale, on terms acceptable to the court.

American-Standard acquired the Kitchens Division through a merger transaction in January 1956 when it exchanged stock for the common stock of Mullins Manufacturing Corp. of Salem, Ohio.

The judgment also provides that for a period of five years, American-Standard may not acquire any interest in a competing manufacturer of plumbing fixtures or fittings or steel kitchen cabinets, except with the approval of the Justice Department or specific permission of the Pittsburgh court.

The government charged consolidation of American-Standard and Mullins reduced competition in the kitchen equipment and plumbing field and enhanced American-Standard's competitive advantage over other manufacturers of these products.

The government said that American-Standard with assets of $295 million, was the largest maker of kitchen sinks and bathtubs in the United States with a line also including steel cabinets and plumbing fixtures.

Mullins, with assets of $42 million, was the largest manufacturer of steel kitchen sinks and cabinets, and also produced plumbing fittings.

The divestment order also covers the former Mullins steel-stamping business at Salem.

The judgment requires American-Standard to maintain the Warren and Salem enterprises as going businesses until such time as they are sold to others.

Lausche Expected To Get Bid To Help Kennedy's Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — Presidential nominee John F. Kennedy considers support from Sen. Frank J. Lausche D-Ohio, important to him in Ohio. He soon will invite Lausche to campaign for him.

This prediction came today from Lausche's Ohio Senate colleague, Democrat Stephen M. Young.

Lausche, more than once, has publicly noted that Kennedy has not asked him for help.

In an interview, Young said he had not been invited either, but that he has been campaigning for Kennedy anyway.

"I feel certain that we both will be asked to speak," Young said. "I think Frank could do Jack Kennedy a lot of good in Ohio."

"This would be particularly true in places like Columbus, Portsmouth, Athens and Ironton. Frank has such a strong personal following in those cities."

Until recently, Young went on, he had felt the Kennedy campaign had not really left the ground in Ohio.

However, he said things have started improving since Rep. Edward P. Boland, D-Mass., set up headquarters in Cleveland as Kennedy's Ohio co-ordinator.

Young said he has not been at all hurt by any failure by Kennedy to ask him to accompany him in his Ohio campaigning.

"Jack Kennedy is very friendly with me," Young said. "Early this year I told him I was one of the few out of 64 Democrats in the Senate who had no aspiration to be vice president."

"He laughed over that. I also told him I wouldn't accept a Cabinet post if it were offered to me."

On Sunday Kennedy will make his first entry into Ohio since he was nominated. He will speak at a party at a restaurant near Cleveland, then return to northern Ohio early in the week.

Young said he has advised Kennedy to be sure to include some time during his campaign in such cities as Cincinnati, Youngstown, Akron, Warren, Canton, Alliance and Massillon.

"Kennedy will win in Ohio and it won't even be close," Young said.

"But I am concerned about this anti-Catholic situation. I assert that Richard Nixon (the GOP presidential nominee) and the people behind him could stop this hate campaign."

"I'm terrified over it."

African Students Rap Soviet Racism

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Three African students have sent an open letter to the heads of all African governments charging "constant (racial) discrimination and threats" while they were studying at Moscow University.

Announcing their intention to "expose Soviet colonialism" before Premier Nikita Khrushchev addresses the United Nations, the three told a news conference in Frankfurt today that they and scores of other African students are leaving Moscow disgusted at Communist pressure.

They identified themselves as Theophilus Okonkwo, 28, of Nigeria, who said he was the secretary of the executive committee of the African Students Union in the U.S.S.R.; Andrew R. Amar, of Uganda, and Michel Ayih, 28, of Togo. All were medical students in Moscow during the last three years.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Concerned about Whom Lady?

DEAR ABBY: My husband sleeps in the nude. We've been married 33 years and while the children were home and we slept in the same room, he wore pajamas. But now we each have our own bedroom and when I go to make his bed in the morning I find his pajamas have not been slept in. I talked to him about this and he says it is more comfortable that way.

This worries me because he has a heart condition and if he should die some night in the nude this would be very embarrassing when the undertaker comes. Can you help me?

CONCERNED

DEAR CONCERNED: Man comes into this world naked and there is no embarrassment, so why should there be any if he goes out the same way? Let him sleep the way he wants to.

husband like this, but I actually feel guilty. If I take the money and buy something for him, he has a fit. He's down to his last shoes, socks, shorts and trousers. And he doesn't have a decent suit to his name.

"FASHION PLATE" DEAR "FASHION PLATE": Let him know how much you appreciate his generosity, but tell him you take no pleasure in looking a fashion plate while he looks like a poor relation. Dress him up and keep him dressed up.

DEAR ABBY: I thought your advice to "STRAIGHT UP AND DOWN" was literally straight up and down. To put it still another way:

"What Nature has forgotten Stuff with cotton."

Bigelow's new high-bulk broadloom with no highfalutin' airs!

Good looks. Good wear. Good price. These are the down-to-earth values unique to Londonderry (thanks to Bigelow's new high-bulk yarn!) This 3-ply, permanently mothproof wool is fluffed up, much like high-bulk sweater yarn, but sturdier. It gives a much deeper, denser pile than ever before possible at the price, plus, all the extra long wear you'd expect! It's luxurious, yes, but this luxury's the real McCoy! See Londonderry today if you want your carpet dollar's full worth!

Short Selling Gives Cushion To Stock Mart

Volume of Sell-off Is Highest Since Year Ago Last March

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Stocks sold short on the New York Stock Exchange by those looking for a drop in prices were at the highest volume just before Monday's break of any time since March 1959.

This could give the market a nice cushion now. Those who sell short are potential buyers.

A 12 per cent jump in short interest volume since mid-August also may be cited as a sign that more traders were expecting a break than at any time in 18 months. As such it's an indication of trading psychology, but one that has to be kept in perspective.

For one thing, the big gain among stocks clearly sold in expectation of declining prices was in a few issues, most of them recently subject to 'big price buildups.

And for another the increased volume of stocks sold short is still but a tiny part of the number of stocks outstanding. The New York Stock Exchange says the Sept. 15 total of 3,634,971 shares amounted to about 0.1 per cent of all stocks listed on the big board.

Insofar as the stocks sold short are included in those taking a tumble Monday, the short sellers have made money—if that's any silver lining to dark market clouds.

A short sale works this way. The trader borrows stock from some holder and sells it at the going price. He must buy the stock later on the open market to replace the shares he has borrowed.

If the price has gone down in the meantime he makes money. If it has gone up and sooner or later he is forced to buy back at the higher price he has lost money.

That's why brokers warn that short selling isn't for persons with unsteady nerves or shaky bank accounts. It can be a quick road to loss or insolvency. And even when the deal is lucky, the suspense can cause ulcers.

On Sept. 15 there were short positions in 958 of the 1,528 issues listed on the New York Stock Exchange. In 158 stocks the short interest amounted to 5,000 or more shares or had shown a change since mid-August of 2,000 or more shares.

And while the stock market is testing out a new floor for prices, the bulls will take comfort from the fact that holders of the increased total of shares sold short will help provide a market. When prices drop enough for their liking they'll buy and replace the borrowed shares.

Also on the prowl will be bargain hunters. They reason that in any big drop in prices some shares are bound to be bid down more than warranted. Thus the selling minded won't have it all their way.

Public Notice A Vital Right

By JAMES E. POLLARD
(Copyright)

One of the important books of the 1950's was "The People's Right to Know." It was written by the late Dr. Harold L. Cross, a leading attorney and for some years on the staff of the Graduate School of Journalism, Columbia University. As its foreword pointed out, the book was in reality a report to the American Society of Newspaper Editors which sponsored the study.

This 400-page book has to do with the status of legal access to the public records and proceedings in the United States. It deals with various aspects of what the book calls "the never won struggle for a maximum of basic freedoms in a free society." Concerted attention has been focused upon this problem in recent years by a number of agencies, both state and national.

In wartime and under the security conditions necessary even during the cold war, there has been a tendency to go beyond necessity in withholding information from the public. Some of this has resulted from overzealousness on the part of the armed services. Some has grown out of the tendency of bureaucracy to protect itself and, in so doing, to make its own ground rules. But as a result of the efforts of Dr. Cross and others, some progress has been made in breaking down the fences erected around legitimate information.

Public notice or legal advertising, is another aspect of the people's right to know. It is for the protection of their rights, both personal and collective. Whether it has to do with tax rates, a special election, or settling an estate, the principal is the same. The newspaper, in turn, performs a public service in publishing public notices. They are part of the legal machinery of helping to insure the people's right to know.

Everly Brothers Claim School Costs Them $100,000 Cash

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Would you pass up $100,000 to go to school?

Silly question, huh? But the Everly brothers come up with a sillier answer: Yes.

You might think that the record stars are a bit old to be going to school; Don is 23 and Phil is 21. But every day they report to Warner Brothers' little red schoolhouse to learn the business of being actors.

To do so, they had to cut out personal engagements for several months. They figure the cost at 100 gees. But the drama lessons cost nothing, so it all evens up. They have no deal with Warner studio, but record for the company's disc label.

Why are they playing school-boys at this late date?

"Because we had to start thinking about the future," said Don. "I tried to figure where I might be able to go in the entertainment business. The answer seemed to be to become a dramatic actor."

"Sure, we're doing all right in the music business," said Phil. "But it gets riskier all the time. You don't know what's going to happen to it tomorrow."

Ohio Turnpike Ups Next Year's Budget

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Turnpike Commission has unanimously approved next year's preliminary budget providing for a 2.94 per cent increase in operating expenses over the total estimated for 1960 for the state's turnpike system.

The budget for next year's operations is $5,491,600. Estimated income for 1961 was set at $25,575,600. The previously estimated income for this year was $24,570,000, but officials said that total would be exceeded.

Commissioner Robert S. Beghtler of Columbus said the 1961 preliminary budget was conservative, but he warned that a recession might make it inadequate because of shrinking toll revenues.

Wolverines Are Stronger, But Still a Question Mark

BY WALTER JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor
EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another in a series on the major football teams in the midwest. Others will follow on this page daily.

AN ARBOR, Mich. — Bump Elliott is preparing his second Michigan football team for its opener with the University of Oregon here September 24 but you couldn't blame him if he looked ahead a bit to November 5 when his Wolverines play host to Illinois.

For, on that day, at Ann Arbor, Bump will be pitting his team and brains against his brother, Pete, the new coach of the Illini, for the first time in their illustrious athletic careers.

Pete's club will be the favorite, barring a reversal of pre-season form, for the Illini are picked among the top choices in the Conference while the Wolves, "champions of the West" so many years, aren't picked high.

Bump's first team last season, with a new system and a new coach, finished with 4-5, which wasn't bad. And the 1960 squad, with 31 out of 44 letterman back (Michigan gives out a lot of letters because many players get into the game) should be improved, if only because of experience.

"We'll be somewhat like a year ago," the blond, handsome young Michigan coach says. "We're just not sure of what we have. But I'd say we should be stronger. We have better team speed and we're fairly strong at end. Our tackle spot is like a year ago; we don't have the big size you need. We have five lettermen at tackle but this wasn't one of our good spots last year. We're crying about our guards for we lost almost all our guard strength."

Kittens Host Logan Elm Unit

Circleville High School's reserve football squad will tangle with Logan Elm today at the S. Court St. Elementary School field. The kickoff will be 4 p. m.

The CHS Kittens, originally scheduled to meet Chillicothe Monday, billed the Logan Elm game after the Cavalier test was rained out.

Kitten Coach Jim Lint said Logan Elm probably will bring its squad of 22 players here for the test.

The Logan Elm team of Coach Keith Merrin opened last week with a 20-8 victory over the Boys Industrial School reserve team.

The Kittens will be after their first win in two starts after dropping a 20-0 tilt to Lancaster last week.

More Delaware Records Fall

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—Orbiter, owned by the Castleton Farm of Lexington, Ky., captured the featured $11,670 Ohio Standardbred Futurity in record time at the Delaware Grand Circuit Wednesday.

The freshman trotter set a world mark on a half-mile track for two heats by juveniles with a 4:08 2-5 showing. That time bettered the 1944 mark of 4:09 by Titan Hanover.

Orbiter, steered by Ralph Baldwin, scooted home in identical times of 2:04 1-5.

In another record performance, Expresson tied the world mark for 4-year-old mares when she captured the first heat of the Big Five Trot in 2:01 3-5. The time had been set by Onolee Hanover in 1947.

GE Honors Baseballers

The champion General Electric Babe Ruth baseball team was honored with a dinner last night at the local GE plant.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of miniature silver baseballs to each member of the team. The awards were made by General Electric in recognition of the squad's second consecutive Babe Ruth championship.

The baseballers were presented by Ed Grigg, GE plant manager who congratulated the team on its effort this season. Supervisor James Carr welcomed the players and served as toastmaster for the ceremony.

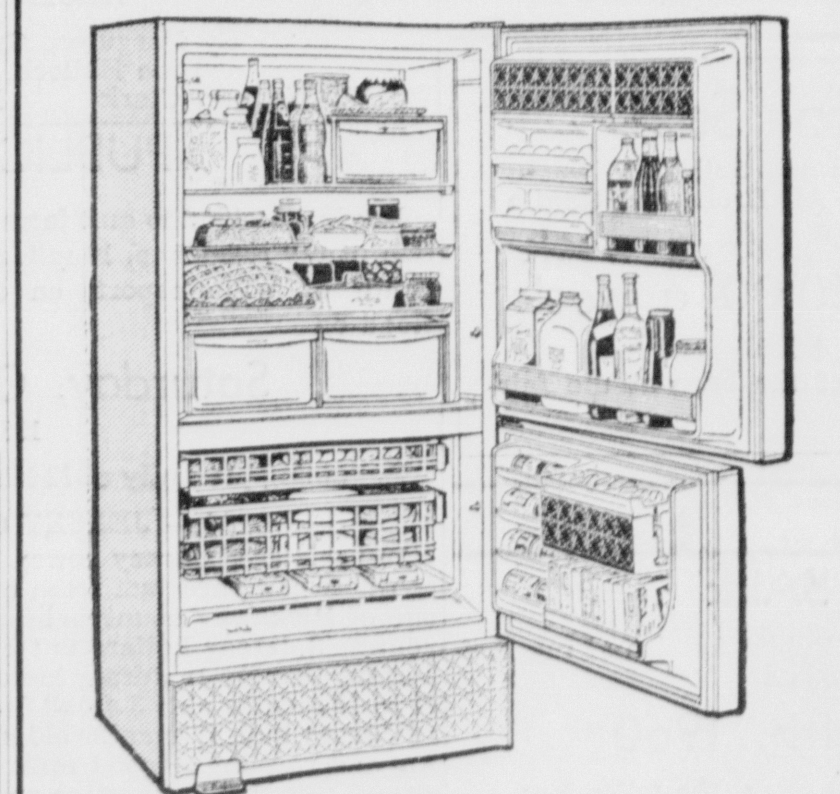

Following the dinner and presentation of awards, the team viewed a section of the GE plant's production line.

Attending the dinner were Paul Smallwood, team manager, and players Fred Moore, David Bass, John Good, Bob Good, Jim Wood, Mick Tomlinson, John Jeffries, George Grigg and Gary Stewart. Players Granville Jones and Larry Adams were unable to attend.

The 1960 season is the 25th anniversary of the Detroit Lions first world championship team in 1935.

Rosary Unit Puts Record on Block

Columbus Rosary's Crusaders, a team which hasn't lost a game in its 22 outings, will put their record on the block here Friday night.

The only blemishes on the Rosary record are a 20-20 tie with Circleville last year and a 12-12 deadlock with Groveport in an opening game this season.

Last year's explosive game here saw the two teams slug it out to a deadlock. More of the same is a possibility tomorrow night.

Although graduation struck the Rosary crew hard, the Crusaders still have 13 lettermen for this year's campaign. Six of the letter winners are linemen and seven are backs.

THE returnees include End

Dick Wein, 161; Tackles Tom Duffy, 205, and Frank Catalano, 200; Guards John Brennenman, 172, and John Lewis, 212; Center Charles Hock, 177;

Backs Mark Wyman, 150; Frank Curran, 160; David Shaloo, 165; Dennis Doherty, 165; Ronald Noll, 131; Jerome Woodyard, 150; and John Hayes, 152.

The Crusaders' 12-12 deadlock with Groveport was with the same team the Tigers battled to a 6-6 tie in an early season practice game.

Rosary undoubtedly will be out to gain revenge for last year's deadlock and the Tigers' sole purpose will be to overcome a sore spot left by the 32-0 defeat to Athens here Friday.

Scioto, Ashville Gridders Ready for Friday Contests

Football squads from Ashville and Scioto are ready and waiting for gridiron tests Friday night.

Scioto will make its first appearance of the season in a trip to Carroll. Ashville will host Cedarville in a Darby Valley League test at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds.

Scioto, playing 11-man football for the first time, will have several capable lettermen from the 1959 six-man squad to bolster its hopes. The letter winners are Mike Little, Phil West, Joe Snyder, Larry Hancock, Sam Abrams, Marland Johnston and Bob Whiteside.

Buffalo Coaches Joe Corbett and Charles Baxter said lack of experience and depth pose the biggest problems for their squad.

ASHVILLE, fresh from a 6-0 victory over Triad last week, hopes to tuck another win away. The Broncos will have Fullback Dan Hollenback, Quarterback Jim Gregg and Halfbacks Dick Noggle and Bob Kuhlwein to spark their offense.

On defense Gregg probably will depend on Jim McCoard, Ken Cummins, Bill Pritchard, David Newton, and Ralph Swank. Jim Brown, a stellar lineman, suffered a knee injury in the Triad game, but may be available this week.

Logan Elm, the third 11-man team in the county, meets Circleville's reserve team in a scrimmage today at Circleville, then

U.S. Challenges Reds on Arms Cut

"A disarmament program which was not inspected and guaranteed would increase, no, reduce, the risk of war."

The President said danger "is posed by the growth and prospective spread of nuclear weapons stockpiles."

"To reverse this trend," he said, "I propose that the nations producing nuclear weapons immediately convene experts to design a system for terminating, under verification procedures, all production of fissionable materials."

"The proposed working group of for weapons purposes."

"The proposed working group of experts could also consider how to verify the complete elimination of nuclear weapons... there is as yet no known means of demonstrably accomplishing this; we would hope that the experts could develop a system."

"United States officials are willing to meet immediately with representatives of other countries for a preliminary exchange of views on these proposals."

Turning to the problems posed by exploration of outer space, Eisenhower proposed that:

"1. We agree that celestial bodies are not subject to national appropriation by any claims of sovereignty."

"2. We agree that the nations of the world shall not engage in warlike activities on these bodies."

"3. We agree, subject to appropriate verification, that no nation will put into orbit or station in outer space weapons of mass destruction. All launchings of space craft should be verified in advance by the United Nations."

"4. We press forward with a program of international cooperation for constructive peaceful uses of outer space under the United Nations."

Eisenhower did not specifically renew his 1955 proposal for "open skies" inspections across national boundaries. He said the question of methods can be left to experts."

Eisenhower announced the United States is ready to join in a world food for peace program handled through the U.N. American shipments of surplus foods abroad now are on an individual country basis."

He said the United States is prepared to supply "substantial air and sea transport facilities on a standby basis," to meet Hammarhjold's request that U.N. members earmark contingents for possible future requests to handle sudden crises.

The President did not mention Khrushchev but he issued an unmistakable challenge in the troubled African situation.

Noting the U. N. attempt to keep peace in the Congo, Eisenhower said, "That effort has been flagrantly attacked by a few nations which wish to prolong strife in the Congo for their own selfish purposes."

The President said the United States and other countries are avoiding any action that would add to the unsettled conditions in the Congo.

"I hope this Assembly will call upon all its members to do likewise, and that each speaker who follows me to this platform will solemnly pledge his country to honor this call," the U.S. chief executive said.

Eisenhower devoted the first half of his speech to Africa, pointing out the high importance of that continent's problems in the General Assembly session.

In offering his proposals on outer space, the President declared that the vital issue is:

"Will outer space be preserved for peaceful use and developed for the benefit of all mankind? Or will it become another focus for the arms race—and thus an area for dangerous and sterile competition?"

Eisenhower said the world lost an opportunity in 1946 to insure that atomic energy be devoted exclusively to peaceful purposes when the Soviet Union turned down a comprehensive control plan submitted by the United States.

A similar chance for control of outer space must not be lost, Eisenhower said.

A White House spokesman said the President offered 15 separate proposals. It undoubtedly was his last appearance as American head of state before the U.N. and probably one of his last major pronouncements on American foreign policy.

The 15 points included the four outer space proposals, give points of the African program, the pledge for continued strong U. N. support, the U.N. food for peace program, the announcement of willingness to put standby forces at the disposal of the U.N., an endorsement of Hammarhjold's suggestion that he be given a qualified staff to assist him in meeting future needs to send U.N. forces to a

Lion's Club To Sponsor Campaign

The Circleville Lion's Club held a dinner meeting Tuesday evening at the Wardell Party Home with Everett Funk, president, presiding.

The members agreed to sponsor a truck equipped with a public address system to boost voter registration which will take place throughout Pickaway County today Saturday and Wednesday, J. E. Peters, 705 E. Mound St., is in charge of the Lion's Club campaign for voter registration.

William B. Brown, candidate for Court of Appeals Judge, Fourth District, was the guest speaker for the dinner meeting. Brown included in his talk the many benefits that the people of Hawaii have received from Lion's Clubs.

The business meeting followed with a vote for the local organization to serve as host at the district convention. Preliminary plans for the Pumpkin Show booth were discussed.

Assistant State AG Director To Resign

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state agriculture director's right-hand man will resign effective Sept. 30.

William J. Gregg of Mechanicsburg, administrative assistant to Agriculture Director Robert H. Terhune since February 1959, said today he is resigning to run for the legislature as representative from Champaign County. Gregg, a Democrat, announced earlier that he would be a candidate.

trouble spot, a statement of U.S. disarmament proposals, and reaffirmation of the proposal that the world's nuclear powers quit producing atomic weapons materials and use their stockpiles for peaceful purposes.

The President explained he was not devoting attention in this speech to some other immediate problems but that these still were of major concern.

In this connection, he mentioned "accumulating evidence of threatening encroachments to the freedom of the people of West Berlin" and the shooting down of an American RB47 plane July 1, followed by "trumped-up spy charges" against its crew members.

The President sought in several different ways to emphasize the strong American support for the U.N. and its secretary-general. "We must guard jealously against those who in alternating moods look upon the United Nations as an instrument for use or abuse," he said.

NEW DE SOTO — The 1961 De Soto emphasizes engineering and styling elements such as single unit construction, torsion bar suspension, and the fleet, fanned look. There have been some interesting new developments under the hood, and overall the big change for 1961 is the sum total of many subtle refinements and improvements. The 1961 De Soto engine operates on regular gasoline with undiminished performance. It will be on display at Joe Moats Motor Sales, October 9.

FBI Probes Steelworker Parley Fuss

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—An FBI investigation is reported under way today into convention session violence between factions vying for control of the million-member United Steelworkers Union.

One faction complained to the Labor Department in Washington that "a reign of terror" at the convention made even elementary Democratic processes impossible. It said it received a reply Wednesday night the matter had been referred to the Justice Department for an FBI probe.

This faction, headed by Donald C. Rarick, McKeesport, Pa., contender for the top union post held by President David J. McDonald, blamed two convention beating incidents on McDonald "goons."

But McDonald, calling Rarick "an absolute confounded liar," said he was deliberately playing "two-bit politics" to provoke trouble and attract attention.

Rarick claimed his "organization for membership rights" is seeking to restore democracy to the union and he said the convention is stacked with union payroll men loyal to McDonald.

Scores of delegates to the convention pushed and shoved around the participants. Many were floored before order was restored.

Loud Boom Rocks Area during Night

Many TV viewers and others were startled at about 10:30 p. m. yesterday when a loud "boom" rocked this area.

Local officers today said the rumbling probably was due to a sonic boom caused by aircraft. They said no explosions or other incidents were reported last night.

Lawrence County Chalks Second Bus Accident

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—No one was injured when a car backed out of a driveway into the side of a moving school bus carrying 18 passengers east of Coal Grove Wednesday, the Highway Patrol said. The driver of the car, James O. Willis, 28, was charged with failing to yield the right-of-way.

It was the second accident involving a school bus in Lawrence County in two days. A bus carrying 25 passengers narrowly missed plunging down a 45-foot embankment near Setstown Tuesday.

Jordan Oliver is in his ninth season as Yale football coach.
